Allowable Subject Matter

Claims 1-82 are allowed.

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The Applicants amended all the rejected independent claims and presented arguments in favor of allowance of the existing claims.

As to Claim 1, the prior art of record taken along or in combination, fails to disclose or render obvious a second detector configured to detect a first sample emission, wherein an axis of the first sample emission is the same as an axis of the excitation emission, and a process configured to calculate a ratio of the detected first sample emission to the detected second sample emission, in combination with the rest of the limitations of the claim.

As to Claims 39, 44, 47, 58, the prior art of record taken along or in combination, fails to disclose or render obvious an axis of the excitation emission is the same as an axis of a first fluorescence from the sample, in combination with the rest of the limitations of the claims.

As to Claims 64,65,66, the prior art of record taken along or in combination, fails to disclose or render obvious a method and apparatus configured with epifluorescence, in combination with the rest of the limitations of the claims.

The reasons for allowance of claim 80 are stated in the Office Action mailed 2/09/2005.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
